Dear Sir.

Your letter rec'd many thanks for the information contained it will be a little help in Judging of Expense &c

I do not quite understand how they should cost $80.00 and only be of the value of $50.00 However I suppose this could be explained

I send you today two catalogues - the one of Japanese articles is now being prepared will send that later

Always glad to hear from you.

My uncle recently died and left forty excellent pictures, Mr Plummer the wife of the well known merchant who recently failed has added sixty works and the remainder come from collection in Chicago

Of course there are some very poor things but there are enough good pictures to confirm the assertion in the Evening Post that it is the best collection of American pictures yet offered at public sale.

Please regard the announcement about ownership as confidential and excuse also my statement that many of the pictures were chosen by myself for the collectors mentioned Mr Innes will return next

I venture to call your attention specially to some few really notable American pictures that are to be sold on Thursday and Friday nights of the week at Cornman Gallery 366 Fifth Ave.
Some of the examples are really masterly and all that I mention are of good size suitable for gallery observation.

Monsieur

I thank you infinitely for the documents relating to the Corcoran Gallery which you were so kind to send me. I should be very happy to make an article worthy of such a celebrated & interesting institution as a sequence to the one I have just written upon the Met Museum of New York. If you possess any article (written) dedicated to the Institution which you represent I would be obliged if you will permit me to peruse it. Permit me to add as Editor of our, "Bulletin of the Museums" of Paris that it will afford me great pleasure at all times to insert in this official publication anything new & of interest concerning the Corcoran Gallery which you may have the kindness to send me. Believe me

Monsieur le Directeur,

Je vous remercie infiniment des documents que vous avez bien voulu m'adresser sur la « Corcoran Gallery » de Washington. Je serais heureux de faire sur cet intéressant et célèbre établissement, une étude qui fera dignement suite à celle que j'ai d'écrit sur le ~~Canaan~~

Si vous possédez quelque article de revue, consacré à l'établissement que vous dirigez, je vous serais reconnaissant de me le faire parvenir.

Permettez moi d'ajouter que comme rédacteur à notre "Bulletin des Musées" de Paris, je me ferais un plaisir d'insérer dans cette publication officielle toutes les nouvelles intéressant la "Corcoran Gallery" que vous voudrez bien me adresser.

Croyez, Monsieur le Directeur, à mes sentiments les plus distingués et dévoués

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 23, 1891

Dear Dr. Barbarin,

Mr. Julius Truesdell, Correspondent, of your city, informed me some days ago that he had arranged ^{with your trustees} for the reception of a large painting, "Going to Pasture" by his brother Gaylord S. Truesdell; and desired me to express it to you as soon as practicable.

I have accordingly shipped it this evening, by U.S. Express, packed in two cases.

Mr. Truesdell asked me to notify him of the Express Company's Charge so that he might arrange for the payment. This

My Dear Sir

Several years ago when in Washington I purchased a photo of Charlotte Corday, in now a copy of the painting in your gallery. I would like now to procure another copy. Make it size about 7 x 10. but and not less. Will you please send me two either by mail or express — I have them properly protected from breaking —

If you will send a postal saying cost of same including postage. I will remit - before you send the picture
